PART V
ANTI-COMPETITIVE TRADE PRACTICES, ETC.

32 (1) Any category of agreements, decisions and concerted practices which are likely to result in the prevention, restriction or distortion of competition to an appreciable extent in Malawi or in any substantial part of it are declared anti-competitive trade practices and are hereby prohibited.

Enumeration of anti-competitive trade practices

(2) subject to the provisions of subsection (1), enterprises shall refrain from the following acts or behavior if they limit access to markets or otherwise unduly restrain competition, or have or are likely to have adverse effect on trade or the economy in general-

- (a) Predatory behavior towards competitors including the use of cost pricing to damage, hinder or eliminate competition;
- b) discriminatory pricing and discrimination, in terms and conditions, in the supply or purchase of goods or services, including by means of pricing policies in transactions between affiliated enterprises which overcharge for goods or services purchased or supplied as compared with prices for similar or comparable transactions outside the affiliated enterprises;

- (c) making the supply of goods or services dependant upon the acceptance of restrictions on the distribution or manufacture of competing or other goods or the provision of competing or other services;
- (d) making the supply of particular goods or services dependant upon the purchase of other goods or services from the suppliers to the consignee;
- (e) imposing restrictions where or to whom or in what form or quantities goods supplied or other goods may be sold or exported;
- (f) resale price maintenance; or
- (g) trade agreements fixing prices between persons engaged in the business of selling goods or services, which agreements hinder or prevent the sale or supply or purchase of goods or services between persons, or limit or restrict the terms and conditions of sale of purchased goods or services.

- 33 (1) It shall be an offence for enterprises engaged on the market in rival or potentially rival activities to engage in the practices appearing in subsection (3): Trade agreements

Provided that this subsection shall not apply where enterprises are dealing with each other in the context of a common entity where in they are under common control or where they re otherwise not able to act independently of each other:

- (2) the section applies to formal, informal, written and unwritten agreements and arrangements.
- (3) for the purposes of subsection (1), the following are prohibited-
 - (a) colluding in the case of monopolies of two or more manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers, contractors or suppliers of services, in settling uniform price in order to eliminate competition;
 - (b) collusive tendering and bid-rigging;
 - (c) market or customer allocation agreements;

- (d) allocation by quota as to sale and production;
- (e) collective action to enforce arrangements;
- (f) concerted refusals to supply goods or services to potential purchasers; or
- (g) collective denials of access to an arrangement or association which is crucial to competition.

34 (1) The following practices conducted by or on behalf of a trade association are declared to be anti-competitive trade practices and are prohibited-

Anti-competitive trade practices by associations

- (a) unjustifiable exclusion from a trade association of any person carrying on or intending to carry on in good faith the trade in relation to which the association is formed; or
- (b) making of recommendations, directly or indirectly, by a trade association, to its members which relate to-
 - (i) the price charged or to be charged by such members or any such class of members or to the margins include or to be include in the prices or to the pricing formula used or to be used in the calculation of those prices; or
 - (ii) the terms of sale (including discount, credit, delivery, and product and service guarantee terms) of such members or any class of members and which directly affects prices or profit margins included in the pricing formula.

(2) any trade association which contravenes the provision of subsection (1) commits an offence.

35 (1) Any person who, in the absence of authority from the commission, whether as a principal or agent and whether by himself, or his agent, participates in effecting-

Control of mergers and takeovers

- (a) a merger between two or more independent enterprises;
- (b) a takeover of one or more such enterprises by another enterprise, or by a person who control another such enterprise, Where such a merger or takeover is likely to result in substantial lessening of competition in any market shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) No merger or takeover made in contravention to subsection(1) shall have any legal effect and no rights or obligations imposed on the participating parties by any agreement in respect of the merger or takeover shall be legally enforceable.

36 Any person may apply to the commission for an order authorizing that person to effect a merger or takeover.

Application to the Commission for authorization

37 (1) The commission shall investigate any application made under section 36 and for that purpose the commission shall be entitled to require any participant in the market within which a merger and takeover is proposed to take place to grant to the commission access to records relating to patterns of ownership and percentages of Sales accounted for by participants in the proposed merger or takeover or by other leading enterprise in the relevant sector.

(2) The commission may require any person possessing such records to give to the commission copies of those records or alternatively to submit such records to the commission for copying by the commission.

38 (1) In evaluating an application under section 36, the commission shall have due regard to the following criteria-

Criteria evaluating application for authorization

(a) a merger or takeover shall be regarded as disadvantageous to the extent that it is likely to reduce competition in the domestic market and increase the ability to producers of the goods or services in question to manipulate domestic prices, output and sales;

(b) a merger or takeover shall be regarded as advantageous to Malawi to the extent that it is likely to result in-

(i) a substantial more efficient unit with lower production or distribution costs;

(iii) an increase in net exports;

(iv) an increase in employment;

(v) lower prices to consumers;

- (vi) an acceleration in the rate of economic development;
- (vii) a more rapid rate of technological advancement by enterprises in Malawi.
- (2) The commission shall not authorize a merger or takeover unless on balance the advantages of Malawi outweigh the disadvantages.
- 39 (1) The commission shall, within forty-five days of receipt of an application or the date on which the applicants provide the information sought by commission if that date is late, make an order concerning an application for authorization for a merger or takeover. Orders of the Commission on mergers or takeovers
- (2) An order made under subsection (1) may approve or reject the application, or it may approve the application on condition that certain steps be taken to reduce negative effects of the merger or takeover on competition.
- (3) The commission shall cause an order made under subsection (1) to be published in the gazette not later than fourteen days after it is made.
- 40 (1) The commission or any person in whose favour or for whose benefit an order has been made may lodge a copy of the order, certified by the commission or a person authorized by the commission, with the Registrar of the High Court and the Registrar shall forthwith record the order as judgment of the High Court. Enforcement of orders
- (2) An order that has been recorded under subsection (1) shall, for the purposes of the enforcement, have the effect of a civil judgment of the High Court.
- 41 (1) Any person that has a dominant position of market power shall not use that power for the purpose of- Misuse of market power
- (a) eliminating or damaging a competitor in that or any other market;
- (b) preventing the entry of a person into that or any other market; or
- (c) deterring or preventing a person from engaging in competitive conduct in that or any other market.
- (2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) commits an offence.

LAWS OF MALAWI

Competition and Fair Trading

Cap. 49:02

42 The omission shall keep the structure of production of goods and services in Malawi under review to determine where concentrations of economic power or anti-competitive trade practices exist whose detrimental impact on competition and the economy outweigh the efficient advantage, if any.

Monitoring
of economic power, etc.

43 (1) A person shall not, in relation to a consumer-
