Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Licences Act.

Interpretation

2. (1) In this Act —
 - “Appeals Board” means the board appointed under section 19;
 - “Authority” means the Licensing Authority established by section 3(1);
 - “Board” means the Board of the Authority provided for in section 4;
 - “Chairperson” means the Chairperson of the Board appointed under section 4(2);
 - “Chief Executive Officer” means the Chief Executive Officer of the Authority appointed under section 5(1);
 - “licence” means the permission that a person shall obtain before engaging in a licensable business activity.
 - “licensable business activity” means a business activity listed in the Schedule;
 - “Member” means a member of the Board and includes the Chairperson;
 - “Minister” means the Minister responsible for Finance.

Note: There is no subsection 2(2).

PART II - SEYCHELLES LICENSING AUTHORITY

Establishment of the Authority

3. (1) There is established for the purposes of this Act the Seychelles Licensing Authority.

(2) The Authority shall be a body corporate.

The Board

4. (1) The Authority shall be administered by a Board which shall consist of not less than five members appointed by the President by notice published in the Official Gazette for such term and on such conditions as the President may determine.

(2) The President shall appoint one of the members to be the Chairperson of the Board.

CEO of the Authority

5. (1) There shall be a Chief Executive Officer of the Authority appointed by the President for such term and on such conditions as the President may determine.

(2) The Chief Executive Officer has, in addition to such other functions which the Board may from time to time assign to the Chief Executive Officer and, subject to the direction of the Board, the supervision over and direction of the affairs of the Authority.

Note: There is no subsection 5(3).

(4) Subject to any direction of the Board and, unless prevented by reasons which appear to be reasonable to the Board, the Chief Executive Officer shall attend and participate in the meetings of the Board but shall have no right to vote at the meetings.

Deputy CEO

6. (1) The President may appoint a Deputy Chief Executive Officer for such term and on such conditions as the President may determine.

(2) The Deputy Chief Executive Officer shall —

(a) discharge the functions of the Chief Executive Officer when the Chief Executive Officer is absent on leave or delegates them to the Deputy Chief Executive Officer; and

(b) perform such other functions as may be assigned to the Chief Executive Officer by the Board.

Staff of the Authority

7. The Authority may, on such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Board, employ such persons as are necessary for the Board to perform its functions.

Guiding principles

8. The Authority shall be guided by the following principles in performing its functions —

(a) The regulation of licensable activities shall aim to set minimum standards relating to such activities and to ensure —

(i) public safety and hygiene;

(ii) national security; and

(iii) environmental protection;

(b) Licence fees will cover the administrative costs relating to issuing licences;

(c) Applications for licences shall be dealt with within 14 days after they are received;

(d) Licences shall be issued on the basis of clearly defined and transparent criteria;

(e) An application shall only be disallowed for sufficient reason and the applicant shall be entitled to appeal against the decision.

Functions of the Authority

9. (1) Where a licence is required under this Act, the Authority may —

(a) grant a licence or renew a licence;

(b) attach or vary conditions of a licence;

(c) subject to subsection (3), suspend a licence; or

(d) in accordance with subsection (7), revoke a licence.

(2) Where the Authority deems it fit to consult any other public authority before exercising its powers under subsection(1), the Authority shall consult such authority.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) (c) —

(a) where any activity, business, trade, profession, premises, animals, goods, vehicles or vessels in respect of which a licence is granted by the Authority is under the control, superintendence or management of another public authority, the Authority may for a breach of any conditions of the licence or for any other reasonable cause suspend the licence for a period not exceeding 60 days where, after giving the holder of the licence an opportunity to show cause, the other public authority is of the opinion that such action is necessary in the interests of such activity, business, trade, profession, premises, animals, goods, vehicle or vessels, and informs the Authority of such opinion;

(b) where pursuant to a conviction of any person by a court for any offence, the court is empowered by any Act to suspend, cancel or revoke a licence issued by the Authority, the court may temporarily suspend the licence for a period of 21 days and shall inform the Authority of such action.

(4) Where a person complains to the Authority against a licensee the Authority may, where it does not consider the complaint frivolous or vexatious,

(a) inquire into the complaint; and

(b) subject to this Act, take such measures against the licensee as the Authority considers appropriate.

(5) The Authority shall ensure that a licensee complies with the conditions of the licence.

(6) The Authority shall keep a record of all the licences it has granted.

(7) Where the Authority is satisfied upon such enquiry as it may consider necessary, that the holder of a licence—

(a) has furnished false, misleading or inaccurate information or has concealed or failed to disclose a material fact in the application; or

(b) has contravened any written law or any condition of the licence,

the Authority may revoke the licence:

Provided that the decision to revoke the licence shall not take effect within 15 days from the date of the decision, or if an appeal is lodged under section 17, pending the determination of the appeal.

(8) The Authority shall, before it decides under subsection (1) to suspend, revoke or refuse to grant a renewal of a licence, give the holder of the licence an opportunity of showing cause against such action.

Powers of the Authority

10. (1) In the exercise of its functions under this Act, the Authority may —

(a) require any person to furnish any information on any matter relating to a licence;

(b) summon a person to appear before the Authority to answer questions and to produce such documents as the Authority may specify in the summons;

(c) administer an oath to a person appearing before it or allow that person to make an affirmation or declaration;

(d) nominate, appoint or authorise any person or any other public authority to enquire and report on any matter relating to —

(i) an application for a licence;

(ii) the alleged breach of a condition of a licence;

(iii) the renewal, revocation or suspension of a licence;
or

(iv) a complaint against a licensee;

(e) where the Authority has reasonable grounds to believe that any activity, business, trade or profession is being engaged in or carried on or any animals, goods, vehicles or vessels are kept, used or possessed or any premises are kept or managed in breach of this Act, and has given the holder of the licence an opportunity to show cause, order —

(i) the closure of the premises in which such activity, business, trade or profession is engaged in or carried on or which are kept or managed;

(ii) the seizure of any material, equipment, animals, goods, vehicles or vessels used in connection with the breach;

(f) call for and obtain the assistance of any police officer, public officer or other person, and use such force as may be necessary, in carrying out any order under paragraph (e).

(2) Where in the exercise of the powers of the Authority under subsection (1) (e), any premises have been closed or any material, equipment, animal, goods, vehicle or vessel has been seized and no prosecution in relation to the premises, material, equipment, animal, goods, vehicle or vessel has been instituted within 60 days after the closure or seizure —

(a) the premises shall be released from closure;

(b) subject to subsection (3), the material, equipment, animal, goods, vehicle or vessel shall be released to the person from whom they were seized.

(3) Where any goods seized under subsection (2) are of a perishable nature or where the custody of goods or animals seized under that subsection would involve unreasonable expense and inconvenience, the goods or animals may be disposed of in such manner as the Authority thinks fit and —

(a) where no prosecution has been instituted in relation to the goods or animals within 60 days after the seizure, the Authority shall pay to the person who claims those goods or animals their market value;

(b) where a prosecution has been instituted in relation to the goods or animals within the period of 60 days after the seizure, the Authority shall comply with the order of the court in which the prosecution has been instituted in respect of the goods or animals.

(4) Where in the exercise of its powers under subsection(1) (e) (i) the Authority orders the closure of any premises, the Authority shall affix upon a conspicuous part of the premises a copy of the closure order.

(5) Upon being so affixed such notice shall be deemed to be notice to all persons that the premises are the subject of a closure order.

(6) Save with the permission of the Authority, no person shall enter, open or allow to be kept open any premises at anytime while a closure order is in force in respect of those premises.

Powers of the Minister

11. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Minister may give the Authority directions of a general character in writing as to the exercise of its functions and powers in relation to matters concerning the public interest and the Authority shall comply with those directions.

(2) In the exercise of the Minister's powers under subsection (1), the Minister shall not give a direction to the Authority with respect to a particular application, licence or case.

Meetings of the Board

12. (1) The Board shall meet at such time and at such place as the Chairperson may determine.

(2) The Chairperson or, in the absence of the Chairperson, any member elected by the members present, shall preside at any meeting of the Board.

(3) Half, or where the Board comprises an odd number of members, half of the members plus one shall constitute a quorum for a meeting of the Board.

(4) Questions arising at a meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and, in the event of an equality of votes, the Chairperson or the member presiding shall have a second or casting vote.

(5) Subject to this section, the Board shall regulate its own proceedings.

Disclosure of interest by members

13. A member or the Chief Executive Officer attending a meeting of the Board, who has a direct or indirect interest in any matter which falls to be decided by the Board —

(a) shall disclose the nature of such interest at a meeting of the Board; and

(b) shall not take part in any deliberation or decision in respect of that matter.

Delegation of powers

14. (1) The Board may, subject to such conditions and restrictions as it may impose, delegate to the Chief Executive Officer such of its powers as are necessary to enable the Chief Executive Officer to transact effectively the day-to-day affairs of the Authority.

(2) The Chief Executive Officer may, subject to the approval of the Board, delegate to an officer of the Board, any of the Chief Executive Officer's functions.

Funds of the Authority

15. (1) The funds of the Authority shall consist of money appropriated by an Appropriation Act and paid to the Authority.

(2) The Authority shall apply its funds for the purpose of meeting expenditures incurred by the Authority in the performance of its functions, the payment of emoluments to the members, officers and staff and meeting such other expenses as may be authorised by the Board.

Accounts and audit

16. (1) The Authority shall keep proper accounts of the Authority and records in relation to the accounts and shall prepare, in respect of each financial year of the Authority, a statement of accounts in such form as the Auditor-General may direct.

(2) The accounts and statement of accounts of the Authority shall be audited by the Auditor-General.

(3) As soon as the accounts and statement of accounts of the Authority in respect of any financial year have been audited, the Authority shall furnish to the Minister a copy of the statement together with a copy of any report made by the Auditor-General on that statement or on the accounts of the Authority.

(4) The Authority shall prepare in respect of each financial year of the Authority a report of its activities and submit a copy of the report to the Minister and the Minister shall cause the report to be presented to the National Assembly.

(5) The financial year of the Authority shall be the year ending on 31st

December.

Appeals

17. A person aggrieved by any decision of the Authority may submit a notice of appeal in writing to the Appeals Board.

Appeals Board

18. (1) There shall be an Appeals Board to hear and determine appeals against the decisions of the Authority.

(2) The Appeals Board shall consist of the following members appointed by the President —

- (a) a chairperson;
- (b) a representative of the Attorney General;
- (c) a representative of the Fair Trading Commission;
- (d) a representative of a non-governmental organisation that represents the interests of the private sector.

(3) A person appointed as a member of the Appeals Board shall have experience in legal, administrative, economic or financial matters.

(4) A member of the Appeals Board shall be appointed on such terms and conditions as the President may determine.

(5) The Chairperson and other members of the Appeals Board shall hold office for three years and shall be eligible for reappointment.

(6) The President shall at any time terminate the appointment of a member who has been found guilty of —

- (a) any misconduct, default or breach of trust in the discharge of that member's duties; or
- (b) an offence of such nature as renders it desirable that the member's appointment be terminated.

(7) The Appeals Board may regulate its own proceedings.

Decision on appeal

19. The Appeal Board may, where it entertains a notice of appeal, decide the appeal by —

- (a) confirming the decision of the Authority;
- (b) varying the decision;
- (c) quashing the decision;

(d) ordering the Authority to reconsider the Authority's decision as directed by the Appeals Board.

PART III– LICENCES

Licences

20. (1) Notwithstanding anything in any other Act, no person shall —

(a) engage in or carry on any activity, profession, trade or business specified in the Schedule;

(b) keep or manage any premises specified in the Schedule, except under and in accordance with a licence granted by the Authority.

(2) Regulations may provide for all matters in respect of a licence under subsection (1) including the levy of a fee or other charge in respect of the licence.

(3)*The regulations presently governing the activities professions, trades and businesses referred to in Part II of the Schedule shall continue to apply until they are amended or replaced by regulations made under this Act.

Note to subsection 20(3): Clause 3 of SI 32 of 2011 attempted to retrospectively save a number of statutory instruments by adding them to the Schedule, contrary to section 29(2) of Cap 103 (Interpretation and General Provisions Act). Those instruments did not appear in the Schedule at the time Act 23 of 2010 was gazetted and were not therefore saved by section 20(3). They have not accordingly been included in this version of the Act. The relevant instruments are as follows:

- Licences (Broadcasting and Telecommunications) Regulations, 1988
- Licences (Complimentary Health Care Services) Regulations, 2004
- Licences (Professional Services) Regulations, 1996
- Licences (Fisheries) Regulations, 1987
- Licences (Employment Agency) Regulations, 1995
- Licences (Pig Breeding) Regulations, 1987
- Licences (Poultry Keeper) Regulations, 1987
- Licences (Coco De Mer Dealers) Regulations, 1987
- Licences (Building and Maintenance Contractor) Regulations, 1999
- Licences (Ship Chandler) Regulations, 1993
- Licences (Shipping Agents) Regulations, 2000
- Licences (Newspaper Publisher and Printer) Regulations, 1987
- Licences (Tourist Guide) Regulations, 1996
- Licences (Tour Operator and Travel Agent) Regulations, 1987
- Licences (Betting) Regulations, 1994
- Licences (Motor Vehicle Dealers) Regulations, 1996

(4) Where, for any purpose specified in another Act, a licence is required under that other Act, it may be provided by or under that Act that this Act shall apply to such licence and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in that other Act, the Authority may exercise its functions and powers in respect of such licence as if it were a licence required under this Act.

Application for licence

21. (1) An application for a licence shall be made to the Authority and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

(2) The Authority may, in writing, direct —

(a) a person who is required by this Act to hold a licence to apply for a licence not later than a date specified in the direction;

(b) an applicant for a licence to furnish such particulars as the Authority may consider necessary, and such person or applicant, as the case may be, shall comply with the direction.

Payment of licence fee

22. (1) Where a licence under this Act is granted —

(a) for a period of one year, the licence fee for that year shall, subject to paragraph (c), be paid before the grant of the licence;

(b) for a period in excess of one year —

(i) the licence fee for the whole period may be paid before the grant of the licence;

(ii) the licence fee for the first year of the period shall, subject to paragraph (c), be paid before the grant of the licence; and

(iii) the licence fee for each year subsequent to the first year shall, subject to paragraph (c), be paid on or before the beginning of each subsequent year;

(c) the Authority may permit the holder of the licence to pay the licence fee in such instalments as may be determined by the Authority.

(2) Where the holder of a licence fails to pay the licence fee or any instalment thereof in accordance with subsection (1), the licence shall cease to be valid on the date the fee or the instalment of the fee is due, without prejudice to the right of the Authority to recover the fee or instalment due on the date the licence ceased to be valid.

Powers of entry

23. (1) The Authority may authorise an officer of the Authority to exercise any of the powers pursuant to subsection(2).

(2) An officer so authorised may, where the officer has reason to believe that an offence under this Act has been, or is being, committed —

- (a) enter and search any premises, vehicle or vessel;
- (b) call for and examine any licence, book or other document;
- (c) take copies of or extracts from any book or document or any entry of the book or document.

(3) An officer shall, if so requested, produce the officer's Authority to exercise powers under this section.

Offences

24. (1) Any person who without lawful authority or reasonable excuse communicates to another person information which the person has acquired while acting as a member, officer, employee or agent of the Authority is guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who without lawful authority or reasonable excuse —

- (a) wilfully fails to furnish any information when required by the Authority to do so;
- (b) wilfully fails to comply with a summons issued or an order made by the Authority;
- (c) wilfully fails to answer a question put to the person by a member in the course of proceedings of the Authority held under this Act;
- (d) knowingly gives false evidence before the Authority;
- (e) wilfully obstructs a member, officer, employee or agent of the Authority exercising functions under this Act; or
- (f) acts in contempt of the Authority, is guilty of an offence.

(3) A person who in any application for a licence under this Act or pursuant to any requirement under section 10(1)(a) or 24(2) makes any statement which the person knows to be false in a material particular is guilty of an offence.

(4) A person who contravenes section 20(1) or, when directed by the Authority, contravenes section 21(2) or contravenes any condition of a licence or contravenes any regulation is guilty of an offence:

Provided that, where a person is charged with contravening section 20(1), the burden of proving that the person is the holder of a licence shall be on that person.

(5) Any person who without reasonable excuse enters, opens or allows to remain open any premises in respect of which a closure order is in force is guilty of an offence.

(6) Any person who removes or otherwise tampers with a closure notice shall be guilty of an offence.

(7) Any person who without a valid licence solicits, advertises, invites or offers for hire or rent any licensable services for a fee is guilty of an offence.

Penalties

25. Any person who is guilty of an offence under this Act shall on conviction be liable —

(a) subject to paragraph (c), in the case of an offence under section 24(4), to a fine of not less than R5,000 and not exceeding R50,000;

(b) in the case of an offence under section 24(1),(2), (5), (6) or (7), to a fine or R50,000 and to imprisonment for 5 years;

(c) in the case of an offence constituted by the selling of lapire or baka otherwise than under a licence issued in that behalf, to a fine of not less than R8000.

Revocation of licence upon convictions

26. The Board may revoke a licence where the holder of a licence granted by the Board —

(a) is convicted of an offence under this Act; or

(b) is convicted of an offence under any other law which disqualifies the person upon conviction from holding the licence or which allows on conviction the revocation of the licence.

Compounding of offences

27. (1) If the Chief Executive Officer is satisfied that a person has committed an offence against this Act and if that person admits that fact and agrees in writing to the matter being dealt with under this section the Chief Executive Officer may —

(a) compound such offence by accepting from such person a sum of money not exceeding the maximum fine specified for that offence; and

(b) deal with the sum of money received under this section as though it were a fine imposed by the court.

(2) In any proceedings brought against any person for an offence against this Act, it shall be a good defence if the person proves that the offence has been compounded under this section.

Regulations

28. (1) The Minister may make regulations for carrying into effect the principles and provisions of this Act.

(2) The Minister may by regulations amend the Schedule.

Transfer of assets and liabilities

29. The movable and immovable property vested in and managed by, and the assets, rights, privileges, liabilities and obligations of, the Seychelles Licensing Authority constituted under the Licences Act 1986 shall stand transferred to the Authority established by this Act upon the coming into operation of this Act.

Repeal

30. (1) The Licences Act, 1986 is repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), any licence granted under that Act and in force on the day immediately prior to the date of coming into operation of this Act shall, unless earlier revoked, continue in force for the period for which the licence was granted.

(3) The Authority may exercise any of its functions and powers under this Act in respect of such a licence as if it were a licence granted under this Act.

LAWS OF SEYCHELLES

CHAPTER 113

LICENCES ACT

SUBSIDIARY LEGISLATION: LICENCES (MANUFACTURING)
REGULATIONS

[31st March, 1987]

SI.18 of 1987
SI. 9 of 1992

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Licences (Manufacturing) Regulations.
2. In these Regulations -

"manufacturing" means making goods or articles for export, sale or reward by subjecting physical matter to any process which materially changes it in substance, character or appearance, or assembling components into finished products;

"goods" includes food and beverages.
3. (1) Subject to subregulation (2) no person shall engage in the business or manufacturing unless the person holds a licence under these Regulations.

(2) A person who holds a licence to carry on any activity, profession, trade or business involving the manufacture of goods or articles, under any other Regulations made under the Act shall not require a licence under these Regulations to carry on the activity, profession, trade or business specified in the first mentioned licence.
4. (1) A person shall before applying for a manufacturing licence, submit to the Ministry responsible for Industries a memorandum setting out in detail the nature of the manufacturing business the applicant intends to engage in, and obtain its approval for the business.

(2) An application for a manufacturing licence shall be in the Form provided by the Authority and shall be accompanied by the relevant fees set out in Schedule I.

(3) Where an application is refused, the Authority shall refund the licence fee and the surcharge, if any, to the applicant.

(4) Subregulation (1) shall not apply to a person manufacturing foodstuff on a small scale and referred to in regulation 13, or to a person operating a furniture workshop not involving assembling of imported timber as furniture.

5. An application for a licence shall be accompanied by the following documents :-

(a) in the case of an individual applying for a licence, documentary proof to the satisfaction of the Authority that the applicant has the education, competence, skill or experience required of a holder of the licence;

(b) in the case of a firm, documentary proof of the education, competence, skill or experience referred to in paragraph (a) in respect of each of the partners of the firm;

(c) in the case of a corporate body,

(i) copies of the certificate of incorporation and memorandum of association;

(ii) documentary proof to the satisfaction of the Authority that the applicant has in its employment persons including the manager possessing the required education, competence, skill or experience;

(d) where an applicant intends to manufacture goods or articles under an authority given by a foreign person, an authorised dealer certificate or other permission from such person;

(e) proof that the applicant has the original manufacturer's warranty for a period of 12 months and that after sales service and parts for a period of 5 years are to be provided by the original manufacturer;

(f) documentary proof that the applicant is the owner or lessee of the premises to be used for manufacturing;

(g) where the premises referred to in paragraph (f) is new or has been renovated

(i) planning approval and certificate of occupancy that the premises comply with all the planning requirements under the Laws of Seychelles;

(ii) a certificate from the person in charge of the Fire Brigade that the premises comply with the planning requirements relating to fire protection under the Laws of Seychelles;

(h) the letter of approval of the Ministry responsible for Industries, referred to in regulation 4(1);

(i) a signed statement of the estimated gross turnover for the first year of manufacturing after the grant or renewal of licence.

6. The Authority shall not grant a licence to -

(a) an individual who

(i) is less than 18 years old;

(ii) is an undischarged bankrupt; or

(iii) has been convicted of an offence involving dishonesty;

(b) a firm if any of its partners is disqualified from obtaining a licence under paragraph (a) or if the firm does not have a place of business in Seychelles;

(c) a company which is not incorporated in Seychelles or is not registered as an overseas company under the Companies Act;

7. Before granting a licence, the Authority shall consult

(a) the Ministry responsible for Industries and International Business in the case of manufacturing of electrical, electronic and industrial goods or articles;

(b) the Ministry responsible for Health as to whether the premises comply with all health requirements under the law of Seychelles;

(c) the Seychelles Bureau of Standards as to whether the goods or articles to be manufactured require compliance with any relevant standard specification or code of practice.

8. (1) A holder of a licence to manufacture food or beverages shall -

(i) comply with the provisions of the Food Act and regulations made under that Act;

(ii) ensure that the premises shall at all times be kept clean and in a hygienic condition.

(2) Every licence holder shall comply with any mandatory specification of the Seychelles Bureau of Standards relating to the manufacture of goods or articles.

(3) A licence holder shall ensure that the manufacturing activity does not cause nuisance by reason of noise, smell, dirt or fumes, to the properties and their occupiers in the neighbourhood.

(4) A manufacturer of electrical and electronic products under a licence shall -

(i) carry on the manufacture at least for a period of five years and ensure that spare parts are available;

(ii) provide a warranty of a minimum of twelve months and furnish a copy of the warranty to the Authority.

(5) In the case of manufacturing and processing of liquor, tobacco and tobacco products, the licence holder shall -

(i) not deliver or sell liquor to, or allow any consumption of liquor by, any person under the age of 18 years or deliver or sell tobacco or tobacco products or allow it to be used on the premises by such a person;

(ii) not employ any person under the age of 18 on the business premises.

(7) The licence holder shall comply with any reasonable written request of the Ministry responsible for Industries for information on the business relating to its size, raw materials used or to be used, skills of personnel employed, type of equipment and source of funding.

9. Notwithstanding the Licences (Trade) Regulations, the holder of a licence under these regulations may import raw material or products and components for assembly and sell on the premises any goods or articles manufactured under the licence.

10. The Authority may, in the interest of an existing manufacturing business or a sector of the Industry limit the number of licences for such period of time as the Authority may deem necessary.

11. The holder of a licence shall display the licence at a conspicuous place at his principal place of business.

12. (1) The Authority may on an application, grant a licence for a period of 1 year, 5 years or 10 years as the case may be.

(2) A licence may, with the approval of the Authority and subject to such conditions as the Authority may impose, be transferred to another person.

13. Where the application is in respect of manufacturing of food products on a small scale and the annual gross turnover does not exceed R20,000 the Authority shall require the applicant to pay only a processing fee of R50.

14. In such cases, Regulation 7 shall not apply and only the Ministry of Health shall be consulted as to whether the premises and facilities meet with Public Health requirements.

15. (1) The Authority may suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew a licence to manufacture where it has reasonable grounds to believe that the holder of the licence -

(a) has made any misrepresentation or failed to disclose any material fact in applying for the licence and thereby influenced the Authority to grant the licence;

(b) has acted in contravention of the Act or these Regulations;

(c) has contravened any conditions of a licence;

(d) is incapable of carrying on the business of manufacturing as authorised by the licence;

(e) having obtained a licence, has not carried on the business of manufacturing for a continuous period of 6 months;

(f) the manager or any of the directors of the licence holder has been convicted of an offence involving dishonesty, fraud or moral turpitude;

(g) the goods or articles manufactured are of poor quality and despite warnings the licence holder has failed to remedy matters.

(2) Where the Authority suspends, revokes or refuses renewal of a licence, the Authority shall give the holder of the licence or applicant an opportunity of making representations and, having considered such representations, inform its decision to the holder or the applicant as the case may be.

(3) Where a licence is suspended or revoked, the holder of the licence shall cease to carry on the licensed activity whether an appeal against the suspension or revocation of the licence has been preferred or not.

16. A person, who was the holder of a licence under Licences (Manufacturing) Regulations (Cap 113 Sub.Leg P.33) or under these Regulations and applies, after the expiration of the licence, for a licence under these Regulations shall, unless the Authority is satisfied that the person had, during the period between the expiration of the previous licence and the application for new licence, ceased manufacturing, be liable in addition to the licence fee and any other penalty under the Act, to a surcharge equal to 10% of the licence fee for each month or part of a month constituting that period.

17. Any licence granted under the Licences (Manufacturing) Regulations and in force on the commencement of these Regulations shall continue in force for the period of validity of the licence.

18. Where there is any change in the management or ownership of a business in respect of which a licence has been granted the holder of the licence shall notify the Authority in writing of the particulars of such change within ten days of its occurrence.

19. (1) Any person authorised by the Authority or a police officer not below the rank of sergeant may, at any time, enter a licensed premises or a building or place reasonably suspected of being used for manufacturing goods or articles for the purpose of ensuring compliance with these Regulations and may make such search and inspection as may be necessary.

(2) Before the Authority suspends, revokes or refuses the grant or a renewal of a licence under this regulation, the Authority shall call upon the holder of the licence or applicant to show cause and having considered any representation inform its decision to the holder or applicant as the case may be.

(3) Where a licence is suspended, the holder shall, notwithstanding any appeal against the suspension cease to carry on the business under the licence.

(4) Where the licence is revoked, the holder shall, pending the decision of any appeal, cease to carry on the business under the licence.

17. (1) A Police Officer not below the rank of sergeant or a person authorised in writing by the Authority may at any time enter and search any premises in respect of which a licence has been issued, for the purpose of preventing or detecting the commission of any offence under the Act.

(2) A Police Officer furnished with written authority of a judge, magistrate, a justice of the peace or the Registrar of the Supreme Court may enter and search any premises whatsoever, in which he has reason to suspect that an offence under the Act is being, or is about to be, committed:

Provided that, where the delay occasioned in obtaining such written authority is likely to prevent the detection of an offence a Police Officer may so act without such authority, but shall report such action as soon as possible to a judge, a magistrate, a justice of the peace or the Registrar of the Supreme Court.

(3) If on any search made under these Regulations any liquor be found which, it is reasonable to suspect, was kept at the place searched for the purpose of unlawful sale, such liquor and the vessels containing the same may be seized and removed by or under the authority of a police officer or the person authorised by the Authority making the search.

18. A person who was the holder of a licence other than a temporary licence and who applies after the expiration of the licence, for the same type of licence shall, unless the Authority is satisfied that he had, after the expiration of his licence ceased to carry on the sale of liquor, be liable, in addition to the licence fee and any other penalty under the Act, to a surcharge equal to 10 per centum of the licence fee for each month or part of a month constituting the period between the date of the expiration of the licence and the date of the application..

19. (1) The Commissioner of Police may, by notice in writing addressed to a holder of a licence require the holder of the licence to close down the premises at such times or for such period as the Commissioner of Police may think necessary for the maintenance and preservation of law and order and inform the Authority of such action.

(2) If any riot or tumult occurs or is reasonably expected to occur any police officer not below the rank of Inspector may in writing require the holder of a licence whose premises is situated in or near the place where such riot or tumult occurs or is expected to occur, to close the premises during such period as such police officer may think necessary for the maintenance and preservation of law and order, and inform the Authority in writing of the action taken under this regulation.

(3) Any person failing to comply with any request made under this regulation shall be guilty of an offence under section 24(4) of the Act and on conviction be liable to the penalty under section 25(a) of the Act.*

Subregulation 19(3) amended by SI 26 of 2013 2 with effect from 15 March 2013.

Note: SI 26 of 2013 purported to amend subregulation 19(2), but the amendment in question can only plausibly relate to subregulation 19(3), and has been so made in this version accordingly.

20. No person shall prevent, hinder or obstruct a police officer or a person authorised by the Authority in the performance of such officer's or person's functions under these Regulations.

21. The Licences (Liquor and Outdoor Entertainment) Regulations are hereby repealed.

SUBSIDIARY LEGISLATION: LICENCES (GAME OF CHANCE)
REGULATIONS

[26th September, 1994]

SI.60 of 1994

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Licences (Game of Chance) Regulations.

2. In these Regulations-

“game of chance” means the playing of bingo, aero bingo, treble chance, lotto, scratch cards or any game, by whatever name called, similar to the above and a lottery;

“winnings” includes any prizes or other winnings of any kind.

3. An application for a game of chance licence shall be in the Form provided by the Authority and shall specify the game or games of chance for which the licence is applied for.

4. Before granting a game of chance licence, the Authority shall consult-

(a) the Ministry responsible for Finance;

(b) the Commissioner of Police;

(c) the Ministry responsible for Planning as to whether any premises in which the activity is conducted comply with the planning requirements under the Laws of Seychelles;

(d) the person in charge of the Fire Brigade as to whether the premises referred to in paragraph (c) comply with the planning requirements relating to fire protection under the Laws of Seychelles.

5. Notwithstanding sections 167, 170 and 173(c) of the Penal Code, a game of chance licence shall authorise the holder of the licence to organize and conduct a game of chance subject to and in accordance with the licence.

6. (1) No person other than a company incorporated under the Companies Act, not being an overseas company within the meaning of that Act, shall be eligible to apply for a game of chance licence.

(2) The Authority shall not grant a game of chance licence to a company where any director of the company or its manager is an undischarged bankrupt or has been convicted of an offence involving dishonesty or immorality.

(3) The Authority may, for the purpose of regulating gaming activities and preventing excessive gaming activities in Seychelles, restrict the number of game of chance licences to be granted under these Regulations.

7. (1) A game of chance licence shall, in addition to any other conditions which the Authority may specify in the licence, be subject to the following conditions-

(a) an invitation to participate in a game of chance, the prizes offered and the rules of the game shall be published in a local newspaper or made public over the radio or television or by the display of public posters;

(b) tickets or cards to participate in a game of chance, other than scratch cards, shall be offered to the public not less than 3 days and not more than 30 days before the date of the game;

(c) each ticket or card offered for participation in a game of chance shall bear the seal of the holder of the licence;

(d) all winnings, if in money, shall be paid in Seychelles rupees;

(e) the holder of the licence shall display in a conspicuous place in the premises in which the activity is conducted-

(i) a copy of the licence;

(ii) a notice specifying the game of chance organized, the prizes offered and the rules of the game;

(f) the holder of the licence-

(i) shall publish in a local newspaper the full name of each winner of a game of chance organized by the holder, other than scratch cards, together with the full address unless the winner has requested that the name shall not be so published;

(ii) shall forward to the Authority the full name of each winner of a game of chance organized by the holder, other than scratch cards, together with the full address and prize won, including the full names and other particulars of the winners whose full names have not been published under paragraph (i);

(iii) where a date has been fixed for the draw of a game of chance, shall not postpone such date either before or after such date unless for good reason published in a local newspaper and made public over the radio or television not less than 2 days prior to such date and shall not, in any event, postpone such date for a period exceeding 60 days;

(iv) shall retain the winning tickets or cards for a period of 90 days after the draw;

(v) shall hand over to the Police station at Victoria any unsold tickets or cards marked cancelled not less than two hours before the draw;

(vi) shall pay in full all winnings in accordance with paragraph (d) to a winner in cash or by cheque (other than a post-dated cheque) immediately after a valid claim is made by the winner;

(vii) shall ensure that tickets or cards offered for each game are of a winner in cash or by cheque (other than a post-dated cheque) immediately after a valid claim is made by the winner;

(viii) shall ensure, at the expense of the holder, the presence of a police officer at each draw;

(ix) shall prohibit any employee of the holder in participating in any game of chance organized by the holder;

(x) shall ensure that the employees of the holder are of good character, honest and willing to provide efficient service to participants of the games;

(xi) shall use for the draw a machine of a type approved by the Authority and tested and certified by the Seychelles Bureau of Standards;

(xii) shall, at the request of the Seychelles Bureau of Standards, produce the machine referred to in paragraph (xi) for periodic testing;

(xiii) shall keep a register of the sale agents of the holder of the licence and make available for inspection the register by the Authority, an officer authorized by the Authority or a police officer.

(2) Where an employee of the holder of a game of chance licence or any person acting on behalf of or under any arrangement with the holder of the licence contravenes any condition of the game of chance licence, the holder of the licence shall be liable for such contravention as if he had personally committed the contravention unless he proves that he had used due diligence and taken all reasonable steps to prevent such contravention and that the contravention was committed without his knowledge, consent or connivance.

8. (1) The Authority may, on application under regulation 3, grant a game of chance licence for a period of 1 year or 5 years.

(2) Where a game of chance licence is granted for a period of 5 years, the holder of the licence shall pay the annual licence fee for the period subsequent to the first year, on or before the beginning of each subsequent year

(3) A game of chance licence granted-

(a) for a period of 1 year shall, unless earlier revoked, cease to be valid at the end of that year;

(b) for a period of 5 years shall, where the holder of the licence-

(i) fails to pay the annual licence fee in accordance with subregulation (2), unless earlier revoked, cease to be valid at the beginning of the year for which the annual licence fee is due and payable;

(ii) pays the annual licence fee in accordance with subregulation (2), unless earlier revoked, cease to be valid at the end of 5 years.

(4) A game of chance licence is not transferable.

9. (1) An application for a game of chance licence shall be accompanied by-

(a) subject to subregulation (5), the fees set out in the Schedule;

(b) a deposit furnished in the manner specified in subregulation (2) of such sum, not exceeding R1,000,000 as may be determined by the Authority, as security for the satisfaction of any judgment against the holder of the licence in relation to any act or omission connected with the licence in relation to any act or omission connected with the licence or for the performance of any obligation of the holder in respect of any winnings of any game of chance;

(c) documents to the satisfaction of the Authority that the applicant has in its employment as manager and senior staff persons who are honest, trustworthy and reliable.

(2) A deposit under subregulation (1)(b) may be furnished-

(i) in cash;

(ii) by a bank guarantee;

(iii) by a policy of insurance.

(3) Where a holder of a licence fails to satisfy any judgment or perform an obligation referred to in subregulation (1)(b), the Authority may, where the deposit is in cash, apply the deposit or, where the deposit is by bank guarantee or by a policy of insurance, require the bank or the insurer, to satisfy the judgment or perform the obligation.

(4) Where by the application of subregulation (3) the deposit at any time falls short of the sum for which the deposit is furnished under subregulation (1)(b), the Authority may require the holder of the licence to furnish an additional deposit so as to make up the short fall.

(5) A person who was the holder of a game of chance licence and who applies, after the expiration of the licence, for a game of chance licence shall, unless the Authority is satisfied that he had, during the period between the expiration of his previous licence and his application, ceased to carry on the activity for which he was previously licensed, be liable, in addition to the licence fee and any other penalty under the Act to a surcharge equal to 10% of the licence fee for each month or part thereof which has elapsed from the date of expiration of the previous licence and the date of the lodging of his application.

(6) Where the application is refused the Authority shall refund the licence fee and the surcharge, and return the deposit, to the applicant.

(7) Where a game of chance licence ceases to be valid, the Authority shall return to the person who was the holder of the licence the deposit or such part thereof as is not required to satisfy a judgment or perform an obligation under subregulation (3).

10. (1) No person is liable in respect of winnings from any game of chance to any taxation or duty imposed by law in respect of income, whether gross or net, profits or gift or to any duty, fee, rate, cess or other impost under any law.

(2) For avoidance of doubt, in this regulation 'winnings' does not include any winnings, profit or other income of the holder of the game of chance licence or any employee of or person acting on behalf of, or under any arrangement with the holder of the licence.

11. Notwithstanding anything in the Penal Code or in an other law, the use of a premises for the organizing and conduct of a game of chance under the authority of a game of chance licence does not constitute the premises a gaming house.

12. These Regulations do not apply-

(a) where a game of chance is organized and conducted for raising money for a charitable cause, or a public purpose, approved by the Minister;

(b) where a game of chance is organized and conducted at an entertainment promoted for raising money to be applied for purposes other than private gain.

13. The Authority may suspend or revoke a game of chance licence-

(a) where the holder of the licence contravenes any condition of the licence;

(b) where the holder of the licence or the manager or any member of the senior staff of the holder has been convicted of an offence involving dishonesty; or

(c) where the holder of the licence ceases to be qualified for the grant of the licence.
