

NATIONAL PAYMENT SYSTEM ACT, 2014*(Act 14 of 2014)ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS*SECTIONS*PART I PRELIMINARY

1. Short title
2. Interpretation

PART II
POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE CENTRAL BANK

3. General powers of Central Bank
4. Operational role of Central Bank

PART III
AUTHORISATION AND LICENSING

5. Authority for authorisation and licence
6. Authorisation of operators
7. Licensing of Payment Service Providers
8. Variation of authorisation or licence

PART IV
ONGOING OVERSIGHT

9. Rules of systems
10. Access to systems
11. Outsourcing of activities
12. Disclosure of information restricted
13. Use of agents
14. Liability
15. Compliance with Anti-money Laundering Act
16. Retention of records
17. Information to Central Bank
18. Inspection and audit
19. Confidentiality
20. Fees and charges

PART V
INFRINGEMENTS, REMEDIAL MEASURES AND PENALTY

21. Infringement and remedial measures

- 22. Offences and penalties
- 23. Compounding of offences

PART VI

SETTLEMENT, NETTING AND FINALITY OF PAYMENT

- 24. Settlement of accounts
- 25. Finality of payments
- 26. Collateral for payment and settlement obligation

PART VII

WINDING UP AND ADMINISTRATION OF A SYSTEM OPERATOR OR PARTICIPANT

- 27. The Central Bank to be notified of winding up
- 28. Prohibition
- 29. Winding up or administration of participant not to affect finality
- 30. Rules of the Central Bank and licensed systems to bind liquidators
- 31. Preservation of rights
- 32. Conflict of laws

PART VIII

PROVISIONS AFFECTING CHEQUES

- 33. Cheques imaging

PART IX

ELECTRONIC FUND TRANSFERS AND ELECTRONIC MONEY

- 34. Enforceability and evidentiary value of electronic fund transfers
- 35. Issuance of electronic money

PART X

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

- 36. Computer entries
- 37. Settlement of disputes
- 38. Protection of acts done in good faith
- 39. Use of information for personal gain
- 40. Cooperation with other authorities
- 41. Regulations
- 42. Directions and guidelines
- 43. Transitional provisions
- 44. Repeal

SCHEDULE

NATIONAL PAYMENT SYSTEM ACT, 2014

(Act 14 of 2014)

I assent

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Michel".

J. A. Michel
President

11th August, 2014

AN ACT to provide for the regulation and oversight of the national payment system and for matters connected therewith and incidental thereto.

ENACTED by the President and the National Assembly.

PART I PRELIMINARY

1. This Act may be cited as the National Payment System Act, 2014. Short title

Interpretation

2. In this Act —

“agent” means a person which acts on the basis of an authorisation on behalf of a payment service provider in providing payment services;

“bank” means a bank as defined in the Financial Institutions Act, 2004;

“Central Bank” means the Central Bank of Seychelles established under section 3 of the Central Bank of Seychelles Act, 2004;

“central counter-party” means an entity which interposes itself between buyers and sellers, becoming the buyer to every seller and the seller to every buyer in a settlement system;

“central securities depository” means an entity in whose register securities are immobilised, and enabling securities transactions to be finally processed by book-entry;

“cheque image” means a cheque which contains digital representation of the front and back of a physical cheque and which complies with such minimum safety standards as may be prescribed by the Central Bank;

“clearing” means the process of transmitting, reconciling or confirming funds or securities and other financial instruments transfer instructions prior to settlement and includes the netting of instructions and the establishment of final positions for settlement;

“clearing system” means a set of procedures whereby participants present and exchange information relating to the transfer of funds or securities and other financial instruments to other participants through a centralised system or at a single location and includes mechanisms for the calculation of participants' positions on a bilateral or multilateral basis with a view to facilitate the settlement of their obligations;

“credit card” means a card that authorises the person named on it to charge goods or services to the account of the cardholder or to obtain cash advances on credit basis subject to repayment of the credit extended;

“credit union” means a credit union established under section 3 of the Credit Union Act, 2009;

“debit card” means a card or an access method by which money is automatically deducted from the account of the cardholder to pay for goods or services;

“electronic fund transfer” means any transfer of funds which is initiated by a person by way of instruction, authorisation or order to a bank to debit or credit an account maintained with that bank through electronic means and includes point of sale transfers, automated teller machine transactions, direct deposits or withdrawal of funds, transfers initiated by telephone, internet, card or other devices;

“electronic money” means electronically, including magnetically, stored monetary value as represented by a claim on the issuer, which is issued on receipt of funds for the purpose of making payment transactions and which is accepted as a means of payment by persons other than the issuer;

“financial institution” means a financial institution as defined in the Financial Institutions Act, 2004;

“national payment system” means all the services associated with sending, receiving and processing of payment instructions or transfers of money in domestic or foreign currencies, and includes —

- (a) the issuance and management of payment instruments;
- (b) payment, clearing and settlement systems, including those processing securities and other financial instruments, arrangements and procedures associated to those systems and services;
- (c) payment service providers; and
- (d) system operators, participants and any third party acting on their behalf, either as an agent or by way of outsourcing agreements, whether entirely or partially operating inside Seychelles;

“net settlement” means a settlement procedure in which final settlement of transfer instructions occurs on a net basis at one or more discrete, pre-specified times during the processing day;

“operator” means the Central Bank or any other entity authorised by the Central Bank to operate a payment, clearing or settlement system;

“participant” means a person who is recognised in the rules of a system as eligible to exchange, clear and settle through the system with other participants either directly or indirectly;

“payment card” means any card or other device, including a code or any other means of access to an account, that may be used from time to time to obtain money or to make payment, and includes a debit, credit and stored-value card;

“payment instrument” means any instrument, whether tangible or intangible, that enables a person to obtain money, goods or services or to otherwise make payment or transfer money which include, but are not limited to, cheques, funds transfers initiated by any paper or paperless device (such as automated teller machines, points of sale, internet, telephone), payment cards, including those involving storage of electronic money;

“payment services” means the services listed in the Schedule;

“payment services provider” means any entity providing payment services;

“payment system” means any system or arrangement for the processing, clearing or settlement of funds;

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made under the Act;

“securities” means —

- (a) shares or stocks in the share capital of a company, whether incorporated in Seychelles or elsewhere, other than a collective investment scheme;
- (b) shares or other units of participation in a mutual fund as defined in the Mutual Fund and Hedge Fund Act, 2008;

- (c) debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, certificates of deposit or other similar instruments;
- (d) rights, warrants, options or interests in respect of securities mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b);
- (e) treasury bills, loan stock, bonds and other instruments creating or acknowledging indebtedness and issued by or on behalf of or guaranteed by the Government of Seychelles or any public authority created thereby;
- (f) options, futures, forwards and other derivatives whether on securities or commodities;
- (g) any such other instruments as may be prescribed.

“settlement” means the act of discharging obligations by transferring funds or securities or other financial instruments between two or more parties;

“settlement agent” means an entity providing accounts for the participants of a system to hold funds and to settle transactions between participants in the system;

“settlement system” means a system established and operated by the Central Bank or any other system for the discharge of payment obligations as well as of settlement of obligations in relation to securities or other financial instruments;

“systemic risk” means the risk that relates to the inability of a participant to meet its obligations in a system as they become due or a disruption to the system that could, for whatever reason, cause other participants in the system to be unable to meet their obligations as they become due.

PART II

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE CENTRAL BANK

3.(1) The Central Bank shall regulate and oversee the national payment system for the purpose of ensuring its safe, secure, efficient and effective operation.

General powers of
Central Bank

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) and subject to this Act, the Central Bank may —

- (a) formulate and adopt a national payment system policy for Seychelles;
- (b) licence payment service providers and authorise operators of payment, clearing and settlement systems;
- (c) determine general or individual conditions, standards, rules and procedures in accordance with this Act and any further implementing measures regarding any authorised entity and their activities and ensure that such conditions, standards, rules and procedures are duly applied;
- (d) act as a forum for the consideration of matters of policy and mutual interest concerning the national payment system; and
- (e) perform such other functions relating to payment, clearing and settlement systems or the issuance of payment instruments permitting the accomplishment of its functions.

(3) The Central Bank shall, in the discharge of its regulatory and oversight functions under this Act, take into account any international oversight standards.

Operational role of
Central Bank

4.(1) The Central Bank may provide facilities for —

- (a) payment, clearing and settlement systems; and
- (b) the operators and participants of the payment, clearing and settlement system.

(2) The Central Bank may —

- (a) establish, own, operate and participate in the ownership or operation of payment, clearing and settlement systems;
- (b) act as a central counter-party to participants;
- (c) hold cash accounts for operators and participants, which may be used for the clearing and settlement of transfers into a payment, clearing or settlement system;
- (d) hold securities on accounts for operators and participants, which may be used for the working of payment, clearing and settlement systems;
- (e) extend intraday credit to participants subject to adequate collateral being granted; and
- (f) act as a central securities depository.

PART III

AUTHORISATION AND LICENSING

Authority for authorisation
and licence

5. The Central Bank shall be the authority to —

- (a) authorise a person to operate a payment, clearing or settlement system; and

- (b) to grant licence to a person to act as a payment service provider.

6.(1) A person shall not operate a payment, clearing or settlement system unless such person is duly authorised by the Central Bank.

Authorisation
of operators

(2) An application for authorisation shall be made in such form and manner and accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed.

(3) The Central Bank shall make regulations for the authorisation of payment, clearing and settlement systems.

(4) In granting an authorisation, the Central Bank may specify the terms and conditions which shall be complied with by the operator.

(5) The Central Bank may suspend or revoke any authorisation granted under this Act in the manner as may be prescribed.

(6) An authorisation granted under this Act may be renewed in such manner and subject to payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

7.(1) A person shall not act as a payment service provider unless such person is duly licensed by the Central Bank.

Licensing of payment service providers

(2) An application for a licence shall be made in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The Central Bank may make regulations for the licensing of payment service providers.

(4) The Central Bank may specify the terms and conditions of licence which shall be complied with by the payment service provider.

(5) The Central Bank may suspend or revoke a licence granted under this Act in the manner as may be prescribed.

(6) A bank or a credit union shall not be required to obtain a licence under this Act to provide payment services.

(7) Notwithstanding subsection (6), a bank or a credit union shall comply with such operational, reporting, disclosure and other oversight requirements set by the Central Bank in respect of licensed payment service providers.

(8) A bank or credit union shall, before providing any payment services which the bank or credit union, as the case may be, is not providing on the commencement of this Act, obtain prior approval of the Central Bank.

(9) A licence granted under this Act may be renewed in such manner and subject to payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

Variation of authorisation
or licence

8.(1) The Central Bank may vary any condition of any authorisation or licence granted under this Act by way of alteration, substitution, addition, deletion or other modification.

(2) Where the Central Bank varies any condition of an authorisation or licence, it shall serve a notice on the authorised or licensed person giving reasons for the proposed variation, and providing the authorised or licensed person with 15 days within which to provide its comments on the proposed variation.

(3) The Central Bank shall take into consideration the comments, if any received in pursuance of subsection (2), in confirming or modifying the conditions.

PART IV ONGOING OVERSIGHT

Rules of systems

9.(1) Every operator of a payment, clearing or settlement system shall establish written rules for the governance, management and operations of the payment, clearing or settlement system including at a minimum rules on management of liquidity, credit and settlement risk, rules determining the time when a payment instruction and a settlement is final, corporate governance, access, contingency arrangements and operational risk, rights and liabilities of participants and the operator.

(2) The rules established under subsection (1) shall be in compliance with the requirements of this Act, and any guidelines, regulations, directions or other orders issued by the Central Bank in this regard.

(3) The Central Bank may vary or revoke any rules of the operator established under subsection (1), where it considers appropriate to do so, having regard to —

- (a) the public interest;
- (b) the interests of the current participants in the payment, clearing or settlement system;
- (c) the interests of potential participants who, in the future, may desire access to the payment, clearing or settlement system; and
- (d) any other matters the Central Bank considers relevant.

(4) No operator of a payment, clearing or settlement system shall cause any change in the payment, clearing or settlement system which would affect the structure, operation or administration thereof without —

- (a) the approval of the Central Bank; and
- (b) giving notice of not less than thirty days to the participants of the payment, clearing and settlement system after the approval of the Central Bank.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), the Central Bank may, in the interest of monetary policy, financial stability, or the public interest, permit an operator to make any changes to a payment, clearing or settlement system without giving notice to the participants thereof under paragraph (b) of subsection (4) or for requiring the operator to give notice for a period longer than thirty days.

Access to
systems

10. The rules on access to payment, clearing or settlement systems shall be objective, non-discriminatory and proportionate and those rules shall not inhibit access to more than is necessary to safeguard against specific risks such as settlement risk, operational risk and business risk and to protect the financial and operational stability of the payment, clearing or settlement system.

Outsourcing activities

11.(1) A payment service provider or an operator shall not outsource any of its operational functions without the written approval of the Central Bank.

(2) Outsourcing of important operational functions shall not be undertaken in such a way as to impair materially the quality of the operator or payment service provider's internal control and the ability of the Central Bank to monitor their compliance with all obligations laid down in this Act.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), an operational function shall be regarded as important if a defect or failure in its performance would materially impair the continuing compliance of an operator or payment service provider with the requirements of its licence, or its financial performance, or the soundness or the continuity of its services.

(4) The Central Bank shall ensure compliance with the following conditions when an operator or payment service provider outsources important operational functions—

- (a) the outsourcing shall not result in the delegation by senior management of its responsibility;

- (b) the relationship and obligations of the issuer towards the users of any relevant payment instrument shall not be altered;
- (c) the conditions with which the operator or the payment service provider is to comply in order to be licensed and remain so in accordance with this Act shall not be undermined; and
- (d) none of the other conditions subject to which the licence was granted shall be removed or modified.

12. A person who has access to the books, accounts, records, financial statements or other documents, whether electronically or otherwise in his or her capacity as —

Disclosure of information
restricted

- (a) director, officer, employee, agent or service provider of an operator, participant or payment service provider; or
- (b) member of the audit committee or liquidator of an operator or payment service provider, shall not during or after his or her relationship with the operator, participant or payment service provider disclose to any person or governmental authority any information relating to the affairs of any customer of a participant or payment service provider, except —

- (i) with the written authorisation of the customer or his or her personal representative;
- (ii) for the purpose of the performance of his or her duties within the scope of employment or appointment in compliance with this Act;

- (iii) as directed in writing by the Central Bank;
- (iv) when required to do so by law or any court of competent jurisdiction in Seychelles; or
- (v) pursuant to the provision of the Anti-Money Laundering Act, 2006.

Use of agents

13.(1) Where a person intends to provide payment services, in particular when linked to a payment instrument, to customers through an agent it shall communicate the following information in writing to the Central Bank —

- (a) the name and address of the agent;
- (b) a description of the internal control mechanisms that will be used by agents in order to comply with the obligations in relation to the Anti-Money Laundering Act, 2006 and the Prevention of Terrorism Act, 2004; and
- (c) the identity of directors and persons responsible for the management of the agent to be used in the provision of the services and evidence that they are fit and proper persons.

(2) The Central Bank shall keep a register for listing the agents, which shall be available to the public.

(3) Where the Central Bank receives the information in accordance with subsection (1), it shall list the agent in a register after due verification of the information.

(4) Where the Central Bank is not satisfied, on verification that the information provided is correct, it shall refuse to list the agent in the register.

(5) The principal shall ensure that agents acting on its behalf inform customers of their acting as agents of a specific principal.

(6) An agent shall not carry out any activities under the agency prior to being listed in the register.

14.(1) Where the payment service providers or operators rely on third parties for the performance of operational functions, they shall take reasonable steps to ensure that the requirements of this Act are complied with.

Liability

(2) The operators and payment service providers shall remain fully liable for any acts of their employees, or any agent, branch or entity to which activities are outsourced.

15.(1) The payment service providers and operators shall meet the requirements and comply with the Anti-Money Laundering Act, 2006 and the Prevention of Terrorism Act, 2004.

Compliance with Anti-money
Laundering
Act

(2) The payment service providers and operators shall guarantee that any agent or other third party acting on their behalf shall comply with relevant requirements.

16.(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any written law relating to the retention of records by the Central Bank in its operational functions, payment service providers, operators, and participants shall retain all records obtained by them during the course of their operation and administration for a period of seven years from the date of the establishment of a record.

Retention of records

(2) Every record shall be kept in written form or kept on microfilm, magnetic tape, optical disk, or any other form of mechanical or electronic data storage and retrieval mechanism as the Central Bank may specify.

17. Every payment service provider, operator and participant shall submit and produce such report, return,

Information
to Central Bank

books, accounts or other information relating to the provision of payment services or the operation of a payment, clearing or settlement system, as the case may be, as may be prescribed by the Central Bank.

Inspection and audit

18.(1) The Central Bank may, for the purposes of carrying out its functions under this Act, conduct inspections and audits of a payment service provider, an operator or participant of a system.

(2) The Central Bank may conduct audits or commission independent auditors to conduct an audit of the accounts, books, documents and other records of a payment service provider and an operator and its participants.

(3) Every payment service provider, operator or participant in a payment, clearing or settlement system shall, as may be required by the Central Bank, assist the Central Bank to the extent necessary, to enable the Central Bank or its auditors, as the case may be, to carry out an audit or inspection.

Confidentiality

19.(1) Subject to subsection (2), any information acquired by the Central Bank in the performance of its functions under this Act shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed by any employee or officer of the Central Bank to any third party.

(2) The Central Bank may disclose information —

- (a) of which the disclosure is necessary to protect the integrity, effectiveness or security of the national payment system;
- (b) to any monetary authority or financial regulatory authority, within or outside Seychelles, where such information is reasonably required for the proper discharge of the functions of the Central Bank or the requesting monetary authority or financial regulatory authority; or

- (c) if required by any written law or a court order.

(3) The confidentiality provided in subsection (1) shall be without prejudice to —

- (a) the obligations of Seychelles under any international treaty, convention or agreement or the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act, 1995; and
- (b) the obligations of the Central Bank pursuant to section 40 of this Act.

20. The Central Bank may impose charges or fees —

Fees and charges

- (a) to defray its direct and indirect costs incurred in providing its oversight and regulatory services to payment service providers, operators and participants; and
- (b) for the provisions of operational services and infrastructure under section 4.

PART V

INFRINGEMENTS, REMEDIAL MEASURES AND PENALTIES

21.(1) The remedial measures and penalties provided for infringements described in this section shall be determined in particular cases by the Central Bank.

Infringement and remedial measures

(2) The action under subsection (3) shall be based on the seriousness of the infringement, its effect on systemic risk, the stage at which it was detected, whether it was voluntarily reported by the perpetrator, and what measure is appropriate to remedy or terminate the infringement.

(3) The Central Bank may take one or more of the following administrative actions, with respect to a payment service provider, an operator, a participant, its directors where it determines that one or more of these entities has committed an infringement consisting of the violation of any provisions of this Act or any regulations, directions or guidelines issued by the Central Bank under the Act —

- (a) issue written warnings;
- (b) issue written orders to cease and desist from such infractions and to undertake remedial action;
- (c) issue written orders to perform such acts as are necessary to comply with the Act, regulations, directions or guidelines;
- (d) impose restrictions or fines on the perpetrator in an amount up to SCR400,000 per day for each day that the infraction continues;
- (e) suspend temporarily or remove from office any director; or
- (f) suspend or revoke the licence of a payment service provider or the authorisation of an operator, or the authorisation to a participant.

Offences and penalties

22.(1) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sections 6 or 7 commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding SCR400,000, and where the offence is committed for a second time, a fine not exceeding SCR20,000 for every day or part of a day on which the offence is continued.

(2) Any person who fails, refuses, neglects or unreasonably delays to comply with any requirement under section 18(3) commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding SCR400,000.

(3) Any person who in complying with a requirement under section 18(3) furnishes any information or produces any book, record or other document which the person knows to be false in any material particular, commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding SCR40,000.

(4) A director, manager or employee of an operator or participant who —

- (a) obstructs the proper performance of an auditor in accordance with this Act or inspection of the Central Bank by an inspector duly authorised by the Central Bank;
- (b) damages, destroys, alters or falsifies accounts, books or records of an operator or participant; or
- (c) with intent to deceive, makes false entries or fail to enter material items in the accounts of a payment, clearing or settlement system, commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding SCR40,000.

(5) Any person who contravenes any other provision of this Act or any regulations, directions or guidelines issued under this Act commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or a fine not exceeding SCR400,000.

23.(1) Where the Central Bank is satisfied that an operator, payment service provider or any other person has committed an offence punishable under this Act and agreed in writing for compounding of the offence, the Central Bank, in consultation with the Attorney General, may compound the offence in the manner as may be prescribed by regulations.

Compounding of offences

(2) Where an offence is compounded under subsection (1), no proceedings shall be instituted in relation to that offence against the operator, payment service provider or the person referred to in subsection (1).

PART VI SETTLEMENT, NETTING AND FINALITY OF PAYMENT

Settlement
of accounts

24.(1) Every participant to a payment, clearing or settlement system shall —

- (a) open and maintain settlement accounts on the books of the Central Bank or an authorised settlement system, including the maintenance of minimum balances, on such terms and conditions as the Central Bank or operator may specify; or
- (b) appoint another participant which has opened a settlement account as a settlement agent, to settle all obligations due from the first-mentioned participant to any other participant arising out of each day's clearing.

(2) In cases where a participant appoints a settlement agent under subsection 1(b), the participant shall, before any obligation is settled by the settlement agent on his behalf, give the operator notice in writing of the appointment, accompanied by a written confirmation from the settlement agent of such appointment.

(3) Any participant who intends to terminate the appointment of his settlement agent, shall notify the operator in writing not less than seven days before the date of termination of such appointment.

Finality of payments

25.(1) A payment, clearing or settlement system shall specify the rules to achieve finality in its operations, in accordance with the provisions of this Act and as prescribed by any regulations, guidelines or directions issued by the Central Bank.

(2) The rules under subsection (1) shall include irrevocability of orders once these have entered into the payment, clearing or settlement system, unless special conditions apply.

(3) The entry or payment that has been effected in terms of sub section (1) shall not be revoked, reversed, or set aside, including, without limitation, by insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings or any other law similar in purpose and effect and is not subject to any provision of law or order of an administrative or judicial authority that operates as a stay of that payment.

26. The rights and remedies of an operator, a participant, a central counter-party and any other third party into the payment, clearing and settlement system or the Central Bank with respect to collateral granted to it as security for a payment or the performance of an obligation incurred in a payment, clearing or settlement system shall not be affected by insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings, or any other written law similar in purpose and effect or any stay order.

Collateral for payment and settlement
obligation

PART VII

WINDING UP AND ADMINISTRATION OF A SYSTEM OPERATOR OR PARTICIPANT

27. Where an operator or a participant in a payment, clearing or settlement system is wound up or placed in scheme of administration, the operator or participant at whose instance the winding up or the administration order or the decision, as the case may be, was issued, shall with no delay lodge a copy of the order or decision with the Central Bank.

Central Bank
to be notified

28. An operator or a participant against whom a winding-up application or scheme of administration has been lodged or decision for voluntary dissolution is made is prohibited from operating or participating in any payment, clearing or settlement system until such application or scheme is disposed of or finally determined.

Prohibition

Winding up or administration of participant not to affect finality

29. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any enactment relating to insolvency or bankruptcy, the winding up or the opening of scheme of administration of a participant in a payment, clearing or settlement system shall not affect the finality or irrevocability of any entry or payment which became final and irrevocable in terms of section 25 before the copy of the relevant order or decision was lodged with the Central Bank.

Rules of Central Bank and licensed systems to bind liquidators

30.(1) Where a participant in a payment, clearing or settlement system is wound up or placed in administration or otherwise declared insolvent by a court, any provision contained in a written netting arrangement to which the participant is a party or any netting rules and practices applicable to the system, are binding upon the liquidator or administrator, as the case may be, of the participant concerned in respect of any payment or settlement obligation —

- (a) which has been determined through netting prior to the issue of the winding-up or arrangement order, as the case may be; and
- (b) which is to be discharged on or after the date of the winding-up or arrangement order or discharge of which was overdue on the date of the winding-up or scheme of administration order, as the case may be.

(2) Subsection (1) shall apply notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law for the time being in force.

Preservation of rights

31. The provisions of this Part shall not restrict or preclude any person from enforcing his rights under the law in so far as it does not affect the finality of payment instruction or settlement or the validity and enforceability of a netting arrangement.

32.(1) In the event of insolvency of a foreign participant the rights and obligations of the foreign participant, relating to settlement shall be governed by the written laws of Seychelles.

Conflict of laws

(2) The rights and obligations of a domestic participant in a foreign payment, clearing or settlement system shall be governed by the law governing that foreign payment, clearing or settlement system.

PART VIII

PROVISIONS AFFECTING CHEQUES

33.(1) A bank or a credit union may present a cheque for payment to the bank or credit union on whom it is drawn by notifying the latter of its essential features by electronic means or otherwise, instead of by presenting the cheque itself.

Cheques imaging

(2) Where a cheque is presented for payment under this section, presentment need not be made at the proper place or at a reasonable hour on a business day.

(3) Where, before the close of business on the next business day following presentment of a cheque under this section, the bank or credit union on whom the cheque is drawn requests the bank or credit union by whom the cheque was presented to present the cheque itself, then —

- (a) the presentment under this section shall be disregarded; and
- (b) this section shall not apply in relation to the subsequent presentment of the cheque.

(4) A request under subsection (3) for the presentment of a cheque shall not constitute dishonour of the cheque by non-payment.

(5) Where presentment of a cheque is made under this section, the bank or credit union who presented the cheque and the bank or credit union on whom it is drawn shall be subject to the same duties in relation to the collection and payment of the cheque as if the cheque itself had been presented for payment.

(6) For the purposes of this section, the essential features of a cheque are —

- (a) the serial number of the cheque;
- (b) the code which identifies the bank or credit union on whom the cheque is drawn;
- (c) the account number of the drawer of the cheque;
- (d) the amount of the cheque entered by the drawer of the cheque; and
- (e) the signature.

PART IX

ELECTRONIC FUND TRANSFERS AND ELECTRONIC MONEY

Enforceability
and evidentiary value of electronic fund
transfers

34. The enforceability and evidentiary value of electronic fund transfers and records shall be as provided in the Electronic Transactions Act, 2001.

Issuance of electronic money

35. In addition to general requirements established by this Act for obtaining an authorisation as a payment service provider, any applicant shall prove that the following conditions are met —

- (a) the provision of electronic money shall not include the provision of credit;
- (b) electronic money must be issued in exchange for the equivalent of Seychelles rupees or highly liquid assets acceptable by the Central Bank;

- (c) electronic money providers shall provide statistics on electronic money loaded and redeemed values in their periodic reports;
- (d) the scheme shall provide sufficient and reliable information to the Central Bank to monitor and control the quantity and velocity of electronic money supply in the economy;
- (e) clearing and settlement mechanisms shall facilitate provision of final settlement not more than twenty four hours after a payment instruction has been initiated in the banking system;
- (f) issuers shall be obliged to redeem electronic money value in Central Bank money, at par, upon request; and
- (g) the management of the underlying float and redemption of electronic money value by the issuer to the holder shall be clearly defined.

PART X

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

36. Notwithstanding any other written law to the contrary, photographic images such as film, microfilm, microfiche or computer images of original documents such as cheques or other payment instruments, securities, certificates of deposits, account ledgers shall be admissible as prima facie evidence of the matters, or transactions of the original instrument, on proof being given on written affidavit or oral testimony.

Computer
entries

37.(1) In this section, “business day” means any day other than Saturday, Sunday or a public holiday.

Settlement
of disputes

(2) Any dispute arising between an operator and a participant or between participants in a payment, clearing or settlement system in relation to any matter arising from the operation of a payment, clearing and settlement system, shall be settled in accordance with this section.

(3) The aggrieved party shall provide the other party with a written statement setting out the full particulars of its grievance, and the parties shall thereupon attempt to settle the matter amicably by consensus within seven business days.

(4) Where the parties are unable to settle the matter as contemplated in subsection (3), they may attempt to settle it within a further period of ten business days by a process of mediation whereby—

- (a) the parties agree on a mediator;
- (b) the mediator takes cognizance of the parties' respective contentions;
- (c) the mediator and all parties discuss the matter at one or more meetings attended by them all, and attempt to settle the matter by consensus; and
- (d) the parties share the mediator's costs equally.

(5) Where the parties are unable to settle the matter by consensus in terms of subsection (3) or if mediation in terms of subsection (4) has been unsuccessful, the Central Bank may on the request of the parties refer the matter to a single arbitrator, and the provisions of the Commercial Code Act relating to arbitration shall apply in respect of the matter.

(6) The arbitrator shall decide on the matter referred to him or her under subsection (5) within one month after being appointed, unless the parties agree to an extension of that period.

38. Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Central Bank under this Act may appeal to the prescribed authority in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

Appeal

39. No action shall lie against the Central Bank, any officer or employee of the Central Bank for anything done or omitted to be done in good faith in the administration or discharge of any function under this Act.

Protection of acts done in good faith

40.(1) A person who, being —

- (a) an officer or employee of the Central Bank; or
- (b) an officer or employee of an operator —

Use of information
for personal gain

makes use of for personal gain, any information relating to the affairs of a participant acquired in the performance of the person's functions under this Act or regulations made thereunder any payment, clearing or settlement system, commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding SCR40,000 or double the amount of the person's gain whichever is greater or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

(2) It shall be a defence to a charge under subsection (1) for the person charged to show that the information used was generally known to members of the public or to a substantial section of the public.

41.(1) The Central Bank may cooperate with other public authorities engaged in the regulation and supervision of financial institutions and other entities directly or indirectly involved in payment services and their operation in Seychelles, as well as on the regulation, monitoring and supervision of capital markets in the country.

Cooperation with other authorities

(2) The Central Bank may cooperate with other monetary authorities and international or regional organisations dealing with regulation and oversight of payment system.

(3) For the purpose of subsections (1) and (2), the Central Bank may enter into memoranda of understanding with the relevant authorities specified in that subsection.

Regulations

42.(1) The Central Bank may for the purpose of giving effect to the principles and provisions of this Act, make regulations with regard to any matter required by this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by subsection (1), the Central Bank may, make regulations providing for—

- (a) the authorisation, licensing, regulation and oversight of payment service providers and operators of payment, clearing and settlement systems;
- (b) the form and manner for applying for authorisation to operate a payment, clearing or settlement system and for licence to act as a payment service provider;
- (c) the manner of suspension or revocation of an authorisation or a licence;
- (d) any matter relating to payment orders and money transfers executed by electronic messages;
- (e) the protection of users of payment instruments.

(3) The Central Bank may by regulations amend the Schedule.

Directions
and guidelines

43.(1) The Central Bank may issue directions and guidelines—

- (a) with respect to the governance, management or operations of payment, clearing and settlement systems and payment service providers;

- (b) with respect to the relationship between operators and payment service providers and their customers; and
- (c) for the efficient implementation, administration and enforcement of the provisions of this Act.

(2) The directions or guidelines issued under subsection (1) may provide that it shall apply to all operators, participants or payment service providers or to one or more categories of operators, participants or payment service providers.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Central Bank may issue specific directions to any operator, participant or payment service provider.

(4) Any person to whom directions or guidelines are issued shall comply with those directions or guidelines.

44.(1) Upon commencement of this Act any person who is acting as a payment service provider or operating a payment, clearing or settlement system may continue to do so for a period of six months from the date of commencement of this Act;

Transitional provisions

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1) any person who wishes to continue to act as a payment service provider or operating a payment, clearing or settlement system, as the case may be, shall not later than ninety days from the commencement of this Act apply for a licence or authorisation, as the case may be, under this Act.

(3) The Central Bank shall on receipt of application under subsection (2), determine the application before the expiry of the period mentioned in subsection (1).

Repeal

45. The National Clearance and Settlement Systems Act, 2010 is hereby repealed.

SCHEDULE

(Section 2)

Payment Services

- (a) services enabling cash deposits and withdrawals;
- (b) execution of payment transactions;
- (c) issuing and/or acquisition of payment instruments;
- (d) money remittances; and
- (e) any other services functional to the transfer of money. This shall also include the issuance of electronic money and electronic money instruments. The term does not include the provision of solely online or telecommunication services or network access.

I certify that this is a correct copy of the Bill which was passed by the National Assembly on 29th July, 2014.

Luisa Waye-Hive
Deputy Clerk